

THE FORMATION OF POETRY

Limited edition copies of maquette

"The Formation of Poetry" by Peter Walker arbs arbsa, was the first new public artwork in Lichfield, Staffordshire for over 50 years. It was commissioned as a celebration of the life and work of Samuel Johnson, and pays reference to the longevity and value of his work as both lexicographer and poet, and how the influence of that work has fed into the the forming of language thereafter. The sculpture was unveiled to celebrate Johnson's Tercentenary.

A limited world wide edition of 12 copies of the ¼ scale model are now available. These highly collectable artworks – are individually fabricated bronze sculptures produced on a brass base. Each sculpture is individually edition marked (base dimensions vary however the longest dimension is approx 36cm. These are initially only available from the artists studio, prior to exhibition).
